

AMOUR

✓ Avoir le droit d'aimer sans être jugée
✓ Pouvoir aller au fond de nos rêves ✓
✓ S'abandonner, comme on a jamais osé
Sentiment profond jusqu'au fond de son être
A chaque instant, je te vois, je te touche
A tout moment, ta présence, ta bouche
Comme si le temps s'était arrêté
Comme si je vivais l'éternité
Le temps me semble si long
Le temps me semble si bon
Bien trop long sans ta présence
Si bon lorsqu'à toi je pense
Je voudrais être l'air, le vent
Pour être à tout moment à tes côtés
Je voudrais être l'éternité
La femme idéale dont tu as rêvé
Mais je ne suis que petite femme
Combien petite et pourtant si grande pour certains
Ces phrases je les ai inventées
De mon cœur, de mon corps elles procèdent
Oui amour, je t'embrasse et je t'aime

Spinoza Edwin M. Curley, Pierre-François Moreau, 1990 The proceedings of the first major international conference on the philosophy of Spinoza to be held in the United States are published here Contained are papers on all aspects of Spinoza's thought by 31 distinguished scholars from the United States Europe Israel and Australia including Jonathan Bennett Alan Donagan Margaret Wilson Amie Rorty Richard Popkin Jean Marie Beyssade Alexandre Matheron tienne Balibar Pierre Macherey Emilia Giancotti Hubertus Hubbeling and Yirmiyahu Yovel Topics discussed are Metaphysics Epistemology and Philosophy of Mind Psychology Moral Political and Social Philosophy and Spinoza's influence , The European Roman d'Analyse Adele Kudish, 2020-01-23 Through close readings of a selection of European novels and novellas written between 1340 and 1827 this study of analytical fiction examines how unconsummated love stories probe the frailty of self knowledge Tracing elements of what the French call the roman d'analyse in the works of Boccaccio Marguerite de Navarre Cervantes Marie de Lafayette Samuel Richardson Jane Austen and Stendhal Adele Kudish discusses how the metaphor of unconsummated love is deployed to represent a fundamental lack of insight into the self Rather than depicting the mind as transparent analytical fiction deals in the opacity of the mind Narrators and characters are faced with deception misprision doubt and confusion leading to self deception jealousy and crises of self The European Roman d'Analyse reads such epistemological failures as symptoms of a more fundamental preoccupation with the human psyche as unchartable and bizarre In this way the authors of romans d'analyse enact a larger philosophical project an anatomy of the psyche wherein we are unable or unwilling to know ourselves Food and Language Richard Hosking, 2010 Essays on food and language from the Proceedings of the Oxford Symposium on Food and Cooking 2009 A New Universal and Pronouncing Dictionary of the French and English Languages Nicolas Gouin Dufief, 1810 Selected Critical Studies of Baudelaire Charles Baudelaire, 2015-02-19 Originally published in 1949 this book contains the French text of various essays by Baudelaire The essays cover a range of topics from Edgar Allen Poe to Delacroix and Madame Bovary and the majority are taken from Baudelaire's 1868 publication L'art romantique Parme provides an introduction examining Baudelaire's views as revealed in the essays as well as commenting on Baudelaire's style This book will be of value to anyone with an interest in French literature Bulletin Boston Public Library, 1881 Quarterly accession lists beginning with Apr 1893 the bulletin is limited to subject lists special bibliographies and reprints or facsimiles of original documents prints and manuscripts in the Library the accessions being recorded in a separate classified list Jan Apr 1893 a weekly bulletin Apr 1893 Apr 1894 as well as a classified list of later accessions in the last number published of the bulletin itself Jan 1896 The Keepsake Caroline Sheridan Norton, Marguerite A. Power, 1855 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1879 The Concept of Love in 17th and 18th Century Philosophy Herman de Dijn, 2007 Love is joy with the accompanying idea of an external cause Spinoza's definition of love manifests a major paradigm shift achieved by seventeenth century Europe in which the emotions formerly seen as normative forces of nature were embraced by the new science of the mind This shift has often been seen as a transition from a philosophy laden with implicit values and assumptions to a more scientific and value free way of understanding human action But is this rational approach really value free Today we tend to believe that values are inescapable and that the descriptive mechanical method implies its own set of values Yet the assertion by Spinoza Malebranche Leibniz and Enlightenment thinkers that love guides us to wisdom and even that the love of a god who creates and maintains order and harmony in the world forms the core of ethical behavior still resonates powerfully with us It is evidently an idea Western culture is unwilling to relinquish This collection of insightful essays offers a range of interesting perspectives on how the triumph of reason affected not only the scientific philosophical understanding of the emotions and especially of love but our everyday understanding as well

Melusine the Serpent Goddess in A. S. Byatt's Possession and in Mythology Gillian M. E. Alban, 2003-01-01 Melusine the Serpent Goddess in Myth and Literature examines how women were once worshipped as the life force but later suppressed with the introduction of monotheism and a changing attitude regarding the sexes It connects the literary conception of the Melusine story to myths and legends of the snake or dragon goddess from ancient to contemporary times

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Le Theatre ,1898 This "Self" Which Is Not One Natalie Edwards, Christopher Hogarth, 2010-03-08 The Self Which is Not One Women s Life Writing in French assembles articles on women s life writing from diverse areas of the Francophone world It is comprised of nine chapters that discuss female writers from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa the Caribbean and Europe in addition to French writers The idea of the self is currently attracting widespread interest in academia most notably in the arts and humanities The development of postmodernism supposes a fragmented subject formed from the network of available discourses rather than a stable and coherent self Jacques Derrida for example wrote that there is no longer any such things as a full subject and Julia Kristeva now insists that the individual is a subject in process The growing importance of psychoanalytic theory particular in French studies has also impacted upon this development The basic tenet of psychoanalytic theory is that the individual is formed of a duality the conscious and unconscious parts of the self which prevent the individual from ever fully knowing her himself and which thus insists upon a plural incomplete self Developments in the field of postcolonial studies have also made us aware of different ways of approaching the self in different parts of the world and eroded the idea of a stable conscious and complete self As scholars examine these new ways of approaching the self autobiography has been the subject of renewed interest Several academic books have appeared in recent years that study the ways in which autobiographers represent the self as incomplete evolving and elusive In particular a number of books have appeared on the subject of women s autobiography and female subjectivity such as works by Sidonie Smith Julia Watson and Nancy Miller and several volumes interrogate postcolonial women s autobiography such as texts by Fran oise Lionnet Gayatri Spivak Carole Boyce Davies and Chandra Mohanty Our volume unites these strands of criticism by examining ways that female autobiographies write the self as a fragmented plural construct across the Francophone world This will be the first book length study of this important development This volume will be of interest primarily to students and scholars working in the areas of life writing French and Francophone studies postcolonial studies and gender studies The volume contributes to multiple areas that are currently garnering substantial interest in academe postcolonial studies Francophone studies gender studies and women s writing By comparing works from across the Francophone world our volume takes a global approach to the genre of autobiography and its inflections by women writers The Self That is Not One in Women s Autobiography in French therefore represents a timely intervention in several interlinking academic fields and will thus garner substantial interest      Le Guide Musical ,1913
