Talking about Food Sofia Rüdiger, Susanne Mühleisen, 2020-06-15 All humans eat and all humans speak activities which in social life often but not always co occur We talk while eating and drinking with others but food is also a prominent literal and metaphorical discursive topic which contributes to establishing communities and identities This omnipresence of eating and drinking in our daily lives has led to a public fascination with foodways The contributions in this edited collection investigate the connection between language and food from a variety of perspectives As food discourses operate on local global and mediated levels they are intertwined with notions of identity and culture and thus shed light on intimate understandings of ourselves as human beings Talking about Food The Social and the Global in Eating Communities provides up to date and thought provoking contributions to the linguistics of food The book is essential reading for anyone interested in food related subjects

Chefs' Fridges Carrie Solomon, Adrian Moore, 2020-05-19 Thirty five of the world s most acclaimed chefs invite you into their home kitchens with this lushly illustrated volume that includes personal recipes Leading chefs such as Hugh Acheson Alice Waters Dan Barber and others have become famous for the sumptuous creations they offer at their legendary restaurants But what happens when the chef whites come off and they head home With exclusive photographs and interviews authors Carrie Solomon and Adrian Moore provide an inside look at how these icons of cuisine cook for themselves Each chef s entry contains an anecdotal essay that sheds light on his or her personal and professional background annotated photographic spreads showing the contents of their refrigerators and freezers a short Q an informal portrait in their kitchen and recipes This is a rare intimate window into the lives and appetites of some of today s greatest culinary minds including twelve chefs who share 36 Michelin stars between them

Everyday Food Practices Tarunna Sebastian, 2021-06-29 In Everyday Food Practices Tarunna Sebastian explores the teaching and learning dimensions of people s food choices and practices as they are played out in their everyday lives and local community Using multi sited critical ethnographic methodology Sebastian followed people on their journeys while planning shopping preparing cooking and eating food These journeys reveal that supermarket corporations play a hegemonic role creating and sustaining class based diets and cultural dynamics which undermine individual agency Rebuking corporate hegemony food education at counter cultural sites such as farmers markets food cooperatives and community gardens seeks to empower people with knowledge and skills derived from socially and environmentally sustainable food curricula However class and ethnicity based patterns of engagement compromise learning at these sites Sebastian argues that by contrast the embodied experiences of inter generational home based food practices are more effective in teaching sustainable cooking skills and the production of healthy meals
