Popular Culture John G. Nachbar, Kevin Lausé, 1992 Popular Culture An Introductory Text provides the means for a new examination of the different faces of the American character in both its historical and contemporary identities The text is highlighted by a series of extensive introductions to various categories of popular culture and by essays that demonstrate how the methods discussed in the introductions can be applied This volume is an exciting beginning for the study of the materials of everyday life that define our culture and confirm our individual senses of identity Genealogies of Emotions, Intimacies, and Desire Ann Brooks, 2016-10-04 Genealogies of Emotions Intimacies and Desire excavates epistemologies which attempt to explain changes in emotional regimes from medieval society to late modernity Key in this debate is the concept of intimacy The book shows that different historical periods are characterized by emotional regimes where intimacy in the form of desire sex passion and sex largely exist outside marriage and that marriage and traditional normative values and structures are fundamentally incompatible with the expression of intimacy in the history of emotional regimes The book draws on the work of a number of theorists who assess change in emotional regimes by drawing on intimacy including Michel Foucault Eva Illouz Lauren Berlant Anthony Giddens Laura Ann Stoler Anne McClintock Niklas Luhmann and David Shumway Some of the areas covered by the book include Foucault sex and sexuality romantic and courtly love intimacy in late modernity Imperial power gender and intimacy intimacy and feminist interventions and the commercialization of intimacy This book will appeal to students and scholars in the social sciences and humanities including sociology gender studies cultural studies and literary studies The Sidney Family Romance Gary Fredric Waller, 1993 William Herbert 1580 1630 third earl of Pembroke and Lady Mary Wroth 1587 1653 were first cousins the nephew and niece of Sir Philip Sidney whose family was one of remarkable literary and political importance Herbert was a poet a voluminous letter writer and one of the Jacobean court s richest and most powerful courtiers and politicians Wroth was arguably the most important woman writer of the period she authored the first Petrarchan poetic sequence the first prose romance and one of the first plays in English by a woman In addition to their connections as cousins and as writers they were lovers and the parents of two illegitimate children The Sidney Family Romance is both a cultural biography and a symptomatic reading of the sexual and textual relationships of Herbert and Wroth Waller s analysis of their letters and literary works relies on a variety of critical apparatuses social history current political and social theories of the Jacobean period and most notably feminist psychoanalytic theory In both his biographical information and interpretive comments Waller focuses on subject construction and gender construction of the early modern period to find that Herbert s poems proceed from his life at court to engage in the gender politics of Petrarchan poetry while Wroth s work proceeds from her disempowered position to project a desire for an autonomy which would lead to mutuality between the sexes Waller tries to find ways of analyzing the inner lives of his subjects in the absence of direct evidence and with a paucity of documentation He examines historical documents including the writings of the two cousins and recent historical research along with contemporary studies of family interactions and gender construction and detailed case histories drawn from nearly a century of clinical and therapeutic studies The author concludes with a discussion of the crisis of gender in the seventeenth century as a contemporary crisis as well Family history has long been central to Renaissance studies The Sidney Family Romance proceeds far beyond any previous works in bringing to bear the very rich and complicated network of ideas observations and literary images in the works of Herbert and Wroth BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Freedom's Right Axel Honneth, 2014-03-11 Theories of justice often fixate on purely normative abstract principles unrelated to real world situations The philosopher and theorist Axel Honneth addresses this disconnect and constructs a theory of justice derived from the normative claims of Western liberal democratic societies and anchored in morally legitimate laws and institutionally established practices Honneth s paradigm which he terms a democratic ethical life draws on the spirit of Hegel s Philosophy of Right and his own theory of recognition demonstrating how concrete social spheres generate the tenets of individual freedom and a standard for what is just Using social analysis to re found a more grounded theory of justice he argues that all crucial actions in Western civilization whether in personal relationships market induced economic activities or the public forum of politics share one defining characteristic they require the realization of a particular aspect of individual freedom This fundamental truth informs the guiding principles of justice enabling a wide ranging reconsideration of its nature and application Kaplan & Sadock's Synopsis of Psychiatry Robert Boland, Marcia L. Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism. Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places. Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words. For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis. From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism. Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places. That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies.

Modern Love David Shumway, 2003-08 My ideas of romance came from the movies said Woody Allen and it is to the movies as well as to novels advice columns and self help books that David Shumway turns for his history of modern love. Modern Love argues that a crisis in the meaning and experience of marriage emerged when it lost its institutional function of controlling the distribution of property and instead came to be seen as a locus for feelings of desire togetherness and loss. Over the course of the twentieth century partly in response to this crisis a new language of love intimacy emerged not so much replacing but rather coexisting with the earlier language of romance. Reading a wide range of texts from early twentieth century advice columns and their late twentieth century antecedent the relationship self help book to Hollywood screwball comedies and from the relationship films of Woody

Allen and his successors to contemporary realist novels about marriages Shumway argues that the kinds of stories the culture has told itself have changed Part layperson s history of marriage and romance part meditation on intimacy itself Modern Love will be both amusing and interesting to almost anyone who thinks about relationships and who doesn t
