Judith Butler Moya Lloyd, 2013-05-03 With the publication of her highly acclaimed and much cited book Gender Trouble Judith Butler became one of the most influential feminist theorists of her generation Her theory of gender performativity and her writings on corporeality on the injurious capacity of language on the vulnerability of human life to violence and on the impact of mourning on politics have taken together comprised a substantial and highly original body of work that has a wide and truly cross disciplinary appeal In this lively book Moya Lloyd provides both a clear exposition and an original critique of Butler s work She examines Butlers core ideas traces the development of her thought from her first book to her most recent work and assesses Butlers engagements with the philosophies of Hegel Foucault Derrida Irigaray and de Beauvoir as well as addressing the nature and impact of Butler s writing on feminist theory Throughout Lloyd is particularly concerned to examine Butler s political theory including her critical interventions in such contemporary political controversies as those surrounding gay marriage hate speech human rights and September 11 and its aftermath Judith Butler offers an accessible and original contribution to existing debates that will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars alike

Cultivating Our Passionate Attachments Matthew J. Dennis, 2020-09-14 Does a flourishing life involve pursuing passionate attachments Can we choose what these passionate attachments will be This book offers an original theory of how we can actively cultivate our passionate attachments The author argues that not only do we have reason to view passionate attachments as susceptible to growth change and improvement but we should view these entities as amenable to self cultivation He uses Pierre Hadot s and Michel Foucault s accounts of Hellenistic self cultivation as vital conceptual tools to formulate a theory of cultivating our passionate attachments First their accounts offer the conceptual resources for a philosophical theory of how we can cultivate our passionate attachments Second the exercises of self cultivation they focus on allow us to outline a practical method through which we can cultivate our passionate character Doing this brings out a significantly new dimension to the role of the passionate attachments in the flourishing life and offers theoretical and practical accounts of how we can cultivate them based on the Hellenistic conception of self directed character change Cultivating Our Passionate Attachments will be of interest to advanced students and scholars working in virtue ethics moral philosophy and ancient philosophy

Deepening Insight Bhikkhu Anālayo, 2021-08-07 Deepening Insight presents a selection of passages from the early Buddhist discourses that provide perspectives on the cultivation of liberating insight into vedan sensation feeling or feeling tone For meditators such passages can be of considerable help as a reference point for deepening insight A metaphor that can offer considerable help when facing vedan s describes bubbles arising on the surface of a pond during rain they arise and soon enough burst and disappear Contemplation of the changing nature of vedan provides a firm foundation for the growth of insight into not self Such insight proceeds through successive layers of the mind s ingrained habit of self referentiality Based on relinquishing the explicit view of affirming the existence of a permanent self increasingly subtler traces of conceit and possessiveness need to be successively overcome until with full awakening all selfing in any form will be removed for good Deepening Insight is based on textual sources that reflect early Buddhism which stands for the development of thought and practices during roughly the first two centuries in the history of Buddhism from about the fifth to the third century BCE These sources are the P li discourses and their parallels mostly extant in Chinese translation which go back to instructions and teachings given orally by the Buddha and his disciples In those times in India writing was not employed for such purposes and for centuries these teachings were transmitted orally The final results of such oral transmission are available to us nowadays in the form of written texts Bhikkhu An layo s presentation is meant to provide direct access through the medium of translation to the Chinese gama parallels to relevant P li discourses In commenting on such passages his chief concern throughout is to bring out practical aspects that are relevant to actual insight meditation Endorsements In spring 1990 S N Goenka initiated an international seminar named The Importance of Vedan and Sampaja a It had the purpose to disseminate the prominence of sensations vedan as a core object of meditation to recognize the intrinsic nature of change and impermanence Venerable Bhikkhu An layo now provides a thorough comprehensive and well selected collection on vedan as maintained in the original early P li Canon Along with the comparison to the Chinese gama otherwise hardly available this collection if adapted and applied to practice may indeed serve as an inspiring source for deepening insight Klaus Nothnagel P li teacher and Center Teacher for Dhamma Pallava in Poland Spike Lee Todd McGowan,2014-02-15 Since the release of Do the Right Thing in 1989 Spike Lee has established himself as a cinematic icon Lee s mostly independent films garner popular audiences while at the same time engaging in substantial political and social commentary He is arguably the most accomplished African American filmmaker in cinematic history and his breakthrough paved the way for the success of many other African Americans in film In this first single author scholarly examination of Spike Lee s oeuvre Todd McGowan shows how Lee s films from She s Gotta Have It through Red Hook Summer address crucial social issues such as racism paranoia and economic exploitation in a formally inventive manner McGowan argues that Lee uses excess in his films to intervene in issues of philosophy politics and art McGowan contends that it is impossible to watch a Spike Lee film in the way that one watches a typical Hollywood film By forcing observers to recognize their unconscious enjoyment of violence paranoia racism sexism and oppression Lee s films prod spectators to see differently and to confront their own excess In the process his films reveal what is at stake in desire interpersonal relations work and artistic creation itself When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber,2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book Irrevocable Alphonso Lingis, 2018-11-13 In his latest book the prolific writer and thinker Alphonso Lingis brings interdisciplinarity and lyrical philosophizing to the weight of reality the weight of things and the weight of life itself Drawing from philosophy anthropology psychology religion and science Lingis seeks to uncover what in our reality escapes our attempts at measuring and categorizing Writing as much from his own experiences and those of others as from his longstanding engagement with phenomenology and existentialism Irrevocable studies the world in which shadows reflections halos and reverberations count as much as the carpentry of things Whether describing religious art and ritual suffering war and disease the pleasures of love the wonders of nature archaeological findings surfing volcanoes or jellyfish Lingis writes with equal measures of rigor and abandon about the vicissitudes of our practices and beliefs Knowing that birth the essential encounters in our lives crippling diseases and accidents and even death are all determined by chance how do we recognize and understand such chance After facing tragedies what makes it possible to live on while recognizing our irrevocable losses Lingis's investigations are accompanied by his own vivid photographs from around the world Balancing the local and the global and ranging across vast expanses of culture and time Irrevocable sounds the depths of both our passions and our impassioned bodies and minds The Ticklish Subject Slavoj Žižek, 2000 With his characteristic wit Žižek addresses the burning question of how to reformulate a leftist project in an era of global capitalism and liberal democratic multiculturalism Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Passionate Attachments Signe Hammer, 1982

Passion in Philosophy Randolph Wheeler, 2016-10-26 Among the first and foremost of American continental philosophers Alphonso Lingis refines his own thought through a topic usually deemed unworthy of philosophical examination passion Lingis criticizes traditional scientific accounts of the emotions as dividing or disrupting our lives and argues for passion as a unifying force a concept which invites philosophical exploration The book's structure is twofold First it offers an examination of Lingis's most recent developments through the topic of passion with essays from some of the most established commentators on the work of Lingis Second it offers a substantial retrospective on Lingis's thought in relation to some of the major figures in continental philosophy namely Levinas Kant Heidegger Butler Foucault and Nietzsche all interweaving the theme of passion Written to celebrate the eightieth anniversary of Lingis's birth these essays show how Lingis's thought has not only endured over so many productive decades but also remains vital and even continues to grow Figurations Claudia Castañeda, 2002-11-29 An interdisciplinary examination of debates surrounding the figure of the child in transnational politics and culture Passionate Intelligence: The Poetry of Geoffrey Hill E.M. Dorotheus of Gaza and Ascetic Education Michael W. Champion,2022 Dorotheus of Gaza and Ascetic Education approaches fundamental questions about the role and function of education in late antiquity through a detailed study of the thought of Dorotheus of Gaza a sixth century Palestinian monk It illumines the thought of a significant figure in Palestinian monasticism clarifies relationships between ascetic and classical education and contributes to debates about how different educational projects related to late antique cultural change Dorotheus appropriates and reconfigures classical discourses of rhetoric philosophy and medicine and builds on earlier ascetic traditions Education is a powerful site for the reconfiguration and reproduction of culture and Dorotheus educational programme can be read as a microcosm of the wider culture he aims to construct partly through his adaptation and representation of classical and ascetic discourses Key features of his educational programme include the role of the notion of godlikeness the governing role of humility as an epistemic virtue intended to organize affective and ethical development and his notion of education as life long habituation For Dorotheus education is irreducibly affective and transformative rather than merely informative at the individual and communal scales His epistemology and ethics are set within an account of the divine plan of salvation which is intended to provide a narrative framework through which his students come to understand the world and their place in it His account of ways of knowing and ordering knowledge ethics and moral development emotions of education and relationships between affect cognition and ethical action aims towards transformation of his students and their communities

Sexuality and Psychoanalysis Jens de Vleminck, Eran Dorfman, 2010 The relationship between sexuality and psychoanalysis can be described in terms of an old and stormy love affair The same can be said about the relationship between psychoanalysis and philosophy It is precisely this fascinating love triangle that the present volume of essays aims to explore A diverse group of philosophers and psychoanalysts reflected on the concept of sexuality in Freudian Lacanian psychoanalysis The result is a stimulating collection of essays where the role of sexuality in psychoanalysis is scrutinized from a philosophical point of view
