Bookman ,1921 The Passionate Spectator John Yau, 2021-08-02 The Passionate Spectator collects essays reviews and art criticism by John Yau an internationally lauded poet critic and curator In this wide ranging collection Yau explores the intersection of art and poetry dissolving boundaries between the artistic traditions and reimagining what it means to see and to write Whether he is interpreting the poetic use of titles in Jessica Stockholder's paintings reviewing the collaborative book project between American poet Robert Creeley and German artist Georg Baselitz or considering the significance of Frank O'Hara's decision to have his portrait drawn wearing nothing but army boots Yau is consistently daring original and contemporary Yau's diverse critical sensibilities permeate The Passionate Spectator as he moves seamlessly between the visual and literary arts Highlights of this collection include an essay on the poet as art critic a study of the relationship between Kevin Young's poetry and the paintings of Jean Michel Basquiat and an imaginative piece in which Yau speculates about what Jorge Luis Borges would have created had he been a visual artist In the title essay Yau lays out the duty of the spectator a duty shared by viewer reader critic and artist it is up to us to experience art to engage and believe in its power

British Books ,1920 John O'London's Weekly ,1920 The Collected Letters of Katherine Mansfield: Volume IV: 1920-1921 Katherine Mansfield, 1996-03-28 The letters in this volume cover the eighteen months Katherine Mansfield spent in England France and Switzerland from May 1920 to the end of 1921 It is the period of her finest stories and when her life took its most decisive turn There is a subtle but unmistakable change in her expectations a new spiritual insistence that is both elusive and resolute From her Chekovian acceptance that they are cutting down the cherry trees she derives a tough existential directness the little boat enters the dark fearful gulf Nobody listens The shadowy figure rows on One ought to sit still and uncover one's eyes There is a determined push not always successful towards a necessary honesty as much as to artistic achievement while those qualities of her earlier correspondence remain undiminished the precision and directness the intelligence and wit the dark incisiveness as much as sheer fun Above all perhaps these letters comprise a record of very considerable courage against increasingly adverse odds as they approach the final years of her life Book Review Digest
