Partners in Gatekeeping Lauren Braun-Strumfels, 2023-11 Partners in Gatekeeping illuminates a complex distinctly transnational story that recasts the development of U.S. immigration policies and institutions Lauren Braun

Strumfels challenges existing ideas about the origins of remote control by paying particular attention to two programs supported by the Italian government in the 1890s a government outpost on Ellis Island called the Office of Labor Information and Protection for Italians and rural immigrant colonization in the American South namely a plantation in Arkansas called Sunnyside Through her examination of these distinct locations Braun Strumfels argues that we must consider Italian migration as an essential piece in the history of how the United States became a gatekeeping nation In particular she details how an asymmetric partnership emerged between the United States and Italy to manage that migration In so doing Partners in Gatekeeping reveals that the last ten years of the nineteenth century were critical to the establishment of the modern gatekeeping system By showing the roles of Italian programs in this migration system Braun Strumfels establishes antecedents for remote control beyond the well studied Chinese and Mexican cases
