The Last Pictures Trevor Paglen, 2012-09-19 Presents 100 images selected for inclusion in a time capsule to be attached to a satellite EchoStar XVI in geosynchronous orbit around the Earth Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-07-15 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy's continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past Not Even Past Dave White, 2025-04-29 The acclaimed author delivers a tremendous jolt of adrenaline then ratchets the action back up for a breakneck finish in this gritty crime thriller The Florida Times Union Six years ago Jackson Donne's fiancée Jeanne died in a car crash a hit and run with a drunk driver It was an open and shut case with few questions asked mostly because Donne was in no state to ask any Now the former PI turned college student has finals coming up and a wedding to plan with the new woman in his life He's something he hasn't been in a long time happy But that unfamiliar feeling doesn't last Donne receives an email with a link to a video of Jeanne being held captive alive for now Donne's investigative skills have faded He has no contacts no one to turn to except for the dodgy ex partner he had when he was a cop the other man who loved Jeanne Donne knows that each step into the past is a piece of the future he's throwing away But the truth is out there on the violent New Jersey streets he once knew like the back of his hand White is one of a group of younger writers reimagining the P I novel This book flies Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Dave White brings the goods Skillfully crafting a tale that thriller fans will devour at lightning speed yet meaty enough that mystery fans will delight in fitting the pieces together Crimespree Magazine

Photography and September 11th Jennifer Good, 2020-09-13 It is all but impossible to think of September 11th 2001 and not at the same time recall an image The overwhelmingly visual coverage in the world's media pictured a spectacle of terror from images of the collapsing towers to injured victims and fatigued firefighters In the days weeks and months that followed this vast collection of photographs continued to circulate relentlessly This book investigates the psychological impact of those photographs on a stunned American audience Drawing on trauma theory this book asks whether the prolonged exposure of audience to photographs was cathartic or damaging It explores how first the collective memory of the event was established in the American psyche and then argues that through repetitive use of the most powerful pictures the culture industry created a dangerously simple 9/11 metanarrative At the same time people began to reclaim and use photography to process their own feelings most significantly in communities of photographic memorial websites Such exercises were widely perceived as democratic and an aid to recovery This book interrogates that assumption providing a new understanding of how audiences see and process news photography in times of crisis
