Past Without Shadow:

Without a Shadow H. J. Reynolds, 2024-04-09 You can only teach your shadow one trick Adlai Bringer remembers going to the desert market with her father The colorful tents the wink of gold and her father s shadow black as night as it moved of its own accord and stole whatever trinket she wanted He called it the Shadow Game After her father disappears Adlai keeps going back to the market determined to find some trace of him and stealing what she can with her shadow Until one day she picks the wrong mark someone who knows her little trick and tries to take her shadow for himself Everything Adlai thought she knew about her shadow is turned upside down and her father s disappearance takes on a new light as she s forced to flee the city or risk being hunted From the desert to the shadow world to even more unlikely places Adlai knows one thing for certain her shadow is a gift worth killing for For readers who enjoy Gods of Jade and Shadow by Silvia Moreno Garcia We Hunt the Flame by Hafsah Faizal The City of Brass by S A Chakraborty and Foundryside by Robert Jackson Bennett A Past Without Shadow Zohar Shavit, 2005-01-01 A Past Without Shadow examines 50 years of German children s books in which the darkest horrors of the Third Reich have routinely remained hidden The horrors of the Third Reich are systematically screened and filtered allowing the darker bleaker parts of history to escape illumination Here Zohar Shavit explores 345 German books for children describing the Third Reich and the Holocaust and finds a shocking distortion of the past a recurrent narrative which suggests that the Germans themselves had no hand in the suffering inflicted on the Jews These books Shavit argues have created the false historical lesson that the real victims of Hitler s crimes were the German people themselves First published to great acclaim in Hebrew and now available in English this book is a wake up call for anyone concerned about German children s literature and its responsibility to past and future A Course in Miracles Helen Schucman, William T. Thetford, 2009-05-15 ACIM Original Edition Text contains the unabridged Text volume of A Course in Miracles as it was completed by Helen Schucman and Bill Thetford in 1972 The conversational tone of this edition invites the novice student into conversation with the Author and even advanced students of ACIM find a new clarity and deeper understanding Does not include Workbook for Students or Manual for Teachers Oxford Studies in Philosophy of Religion Jonathan Kvanvig, 2008-05-15 Oxford Studies in Philosophy of Religion is a new annual volume offering a regular snapshot of state of the art work in this longstanding area of philosophy that has seen an explosive growth of interest over the past half century Under the guidance of a distinguished editorial board it will publish exemplary papers in any area of philosophy of religion The Railroad Trainman , 1897 Shadows on the Wall Edward Bertrand Finck, 1922 The North British Review , 1860 Jesus' Course in Miracles , 2000 The JCIM derives from the Hugh Lynn Cayce version of the Course which was completed by Helen Schucman and Bill Thetford in 1972 Later editing by others removed about 25% of the material contained in the first five chapters and made numerous editorial changes which affected both the tone and the content of the message Many students consider study of the unabridged JCIM version to be indispensable in their curriculum Text only This edition does not include the Workbook or the Teachers Manual There is a good explanation of the JCIM on our website at <http://jcim.net/sacredsource.html> 306 pages plus 102 page appendix comparing the JCIM with the popular commercial version of the Course

Shadow's End Moira Katson, 2013-04-09 At last Catwin and Miriel have chosen their own path escaping the Court and its machinations and fleeing to the Norstrung Provinces to aid the rebellion As they shed the masks and deceptions of their former life however both must face the fact that the same dark forces they fled are at work even in the furthest reaches of Heddred But it is not only avarice and hatred that endanger them the prophecy made at Catwin's birth is slowly but surely coming true and betrayal has followed her in her escape from the court As the shadows of war and rebellion mass Catwin must face the fact that if she wishes to be true to herself and her alliance with Miriel it may be she who bears the cost of saving her kingdom

Neon Visions Brannon Costello, 2017-10-11 In the 1980s Howard Chaykin broke new ground in American comic books with a series of formally innovative iconoclastic works that turned the traditional action adventure tales of mainstream comics into a platform for personal expression political engagement and aesthetic experimentation His original creations American Flagg Time2 and the notorious Black Kiss along with his reshaping of familiar titles like The Shadow and Blackhawk generated acclaim and often controversy as they challenged expectations of the visual design and subject matter permissible in popular comics Today Chaykin remains a vital and prolific artist but despite the original and influential nature of his work he receives scant critical attention In Neon Visions Brannon Costello offers the first book length critical evaluation of Chaykin's work and confronts the blind spots in comics scholarship that consign this seminal artist to the margins He argues that Chaykin's contributions are often overlooked because his comics eschew any pretensions to serious literature Instead Chaykin's work revels in the cliffhanger thrills of heroic adventure genres and courts outrage with transgressive depictions of violence and sexuality Examining Chaykin's career from his early successes to compelling contemporary series such as City of Tomorrow Dominic Fortune and the controversial Black Kiss 2 Costello explores how this inventive body of work through its evolving treatment of the theme of authenticity incisively investigates popular culture's capacity to foster or constrain individual identity and political agency Challenging prevailing assumptions about the types of comics deemed worthy of scholarly attention Costello reveals that the work of an artist as distinctive as Howard Chaykin demands a nuanced reading one that confronts his unique approach to the comics medium his blending of autobiographical themes and genre trademarks and his engagement with comic books as artifacts of consumer culture

Forgiveness Carolyn Baker PH.D, 2000-12-19 THE JOURNEY OF FORGIVENESS Fulfilling The Healing Process first and foremost emphasizes the process nature of forgiveness. The author, a former psychotherapist, has come to believe that forgiveness is not an event willed by an ego which desires to be free of guilt, which may long for connection with those who have harmed oneself or which hopes to comply with the admonitions of modern awareness gurus. Rather, forgiveness, the author insists, is a conscious journey requiring a thorough knowledge of the offense and its effects, as well as the most essential prerequisite: self-forgiveness. The book offers a compassionate yet courageous challenge to look deeply into the wounds inflicted, the emotional and spiritual effects of the wounds, and the psyche of the offender in order to enter and complete what is nothing less than a daunting rite of passage. The author's style, poignant, poetic, and frequently disturbing, relentlessly dispels all illusions of quick fix forgiveness but offers supportive, no-nonsense exercises for embarking on a life-changing transformative journey. Psychic Retreat Irina Filipache, 2024-10-29 Psychic retreat is most of all about freedom; it is an intimate retreat into the unseen life, into an unlived life. Poetry is a way of digesting the world of recycling and growing a subjectivity that found a home in a foreign language. To give voice to one's thoughts, feelings, and dreams was so dangerous behind the Iron Curtain where the author was born and raised. Poetry has become a vital habit, a safe space for a self who meets the world with wonder pain delight fear with curiosity and passion Irina Filipache was born and raised in Bucharest Romania where she lives She is a psychologist and psychotherapist in private practice She is trained in Transactional Analysis She is passionate about learning she loves to study the human psyche psychohistory and the life of human societies

Shadows in the Field Gregory F. Barz, Timothy J. Cooley, 2008-09-09 Ethnomusicological fieldwork has significantly changed since the end of the the 20th century Ethnomusicology is in a critical moment that requires new perspectives on fieldwork perspectives that are not addressed in the standard guides to ethnomusicological or anthropological method The focus in ethnomusicological writing and teaching has traditionally centered around analyses and ethnographic representations of musical cultures rather than on the personal world of understanding experience knowing and doing fieldwork Shadows in the Field deliberately shifts the focus of ethnomusicology and of ethnography in general from representation text to experience fieldwork The new fieldwork moves beyond mere data collection and has become a defining characteristic of ethnomusicology that engages the scholar in meaningful human contexts In this new edition of Shadows in the Field renowned ethnomusicologists explore the roles they themselves act out while performing fieldwork and pose significant questions for the field What are the new directions in ethnomusicological fieldwork Where does fieldwork of the past fit into these theories And above all what do we see when we acknowledge the shadows we cast in the field The second edition of Shadows in the Field includes updates of all existing chapters a new preface by Bruno Nettl and seven new chapters addressing critical issues and concerns that have become increasingly relevant since the first edition

Mary Lee Settle's Beulah Quintet Brian C. Rosenberg, 1991-10-01 In the mid 1950s when Mary Lee Settle published The Love Eaters and The Kiss of Kin critics hailed her as a sharp and acidic writer However when in subsequent novels the focus of her work shifted from contemporary social realism to historical fiction the same critics who previously had praised her work lost enthusiasm In Mary Lee Settle's Beulah Quintet: The Price of Freedom Brian Rosenberg examines Settle's work especially Prisons O Beulah Land Know Nothing The Scapegoat and The Killing Ground to show the magnitude and artistic merit in a single continuous fiction a fiction of major importance According to Rosenberg the Beulah quintet is one of the few grandly ambitious works of historical fiction written by an American woman In the novels Settle attempts to apply a European tradition of historical re creation to American experience and in so doing to adapt a largely conservative form to the demands of a revolutionary history and ideology Although the immediate subject is the history of a region in West Virginia the deeper subject is nothing less than the history of America the beliefs conflicts and illusions that gave rise to and continue to distinguish American culture Rosenberg also treats the reaction to the Beulah quintet among literary critics He looks at the neglect and misjudgment the novels have suffered by being labeled historical fiction a genre often thought to consist largely of romance novels and explains why the quintet should be placed among the canonical works of contemporary American literature Rosenberg includes in his book the transcript of an interview he conducted with Settle in which she reflects on both her intentions as a writer and the reception of her work Mary Lee Settle's fiction has for too long been misperceived Brian Rosenberg's thorough analysis of the Beulah quintet will allow a larger audience to understand the nature and scope of her achievement
