care of a parish Spencer Thornton, 1849 A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century

Renewing Pastoral Practice Neil Pembroke,2013-05-28 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling Neil Pembroke contends that an in depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space The divine persons indwell each other in love but they also provide space for the expression of particularity This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts namely community life spiritual friendship and pastoral conversations The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love the divine persons participate in each other s existence through loving self communication Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics the counselling alliance empathy and mirroring The Notion of Pastoral Care in the Parish Jindu James Ndhilambi,Pontificia Universitas Urbaniana. most basic and needful ministry that exists Every Christian can be involved in a ministry of caring inside and outside the church Caring for one another in Christ s name can be most satisfying and above all it benefits others Pastoral Care in Context John Patton,2005-01-01 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor Parish Counseling Edgar Newman Jackson,1975 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www rowmanlittlefield com
