for his people and he is positioning them to take hold of their heart's desires and dreams. Yet many Believers resist moving towards better days. They do not want certain relationships, roles, assignments, or positions to end. They can't and won't move forward into a new blessing because they are struggling to believe that what is ahead is really good. It's not God's will for his people to get stuck in the transitional times of life. Instead of wandering around in doubt, fear, and regret, he asks his people to trust him through this season of change.
