Majority World Perspectives on Christian Mission Nico A. Botha, Eugene Baron, 2022-05-12 It affords us real pleasure to present this editorial on behalf of the Majority World Christian Leaders Conversation MWCLC The MWCLC started slowly but surely since 2016 following a groundbreaking conversation among eleven mission practitioners from the Majority World who met in the United Kingdom somewhere between London and Oxford At the meeting several themes emerged under the banner of missionary questions and impulses of the Majority World from the perspective of the reign of God These themes and more find reflection in the book However before proceeding to the content of the anthology a note on the concept Majority World seems necessary The time where terms like Third World gained strong currency is long since gone The term Majority World is a new kid on the block and requires some clarification The use of the term is a strategy of avoiding concepts like Developing or Third World or even Global South which are pejorative in a real sense To speak of the Majority World is geographically accurate in that Africa Asia and Latin America are included

Pastor Paul (Theological Explorations for the Church Catholic) Scot McKnight, 2019-09-03 Being a pastor is a complicated calling Pastors are often pulled in multiple directions and must become all things to all people 1 Cor 9 22 What does the New Testament say or not say about the pastoral calling And what can we learn about it from the apostle Paul According to popular New Testament scholar Scot McKnight pastoring must begin first and foremost with spiritual formation which plays a vital role in the life and ministry of the pastor As leaders pastors both create and nurture culture in a church The biblical vision for that culture is Christoformity or Christlikeness Grounding pastoral ministry in the pastoral praxis of the apostle Paul McKnight shows that nurturing Christoformity was at the heart of the Pauline mission The pastor's central calling then is to mediate Christ in everything McKnight explores seven dimensions that illustrate this concept friendship siblings generosity storytelling witness subverting the world and wisdom as he calls pastors to be conformed to Christ and to nurture a culture of Christoformity in their churches

Pastor John, Volume II Brian N. Tebbutt, 2022-01-28 John's Gospel can be both inspiring and bewildering This book enables insight into the Gospel in a fresh way How is it that we respond to it as we do Understanding is enhanced by studying the text and by being aware of the kind of responses we make Reading and working with it will deepen fellowship and skill in pastoral care John's text is mined for gems of insight into ourselves and as a rich resource of ample illustrative material for preachers and teachers This book elucidates chapters five to nine of the Gospel presenting insights that involve us in the story The content derives from years of teaching John's Gospel in workshops and reflection groups in varying church contexts. Guidance is given in working in this way and in how we can share our insights with each other in the light of the text. This experience of John's Gospel is illuminated using recent ways of reading. What the story means is conveyed in detailed Bible study. It becomes real for us. How this happens is explored by understanding the process of reading and by observing our reactions to the text. John's Christ becomes central to who we are.

This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa-related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa. The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa, a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation. Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal's history. The core intention, both of the journal and of this compilation, is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent. Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas. The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations, including the secular as well as the religious. The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars, theological educators, libraries, ministry leaders, and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world, but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there.

A Shepherd's Responsibilities in Pastoral Ministry Marjorie Herschler, 2017-10-06. This book is written from a theological perspective. It explains certain concepts of what is expected of a pastor in pastoral ministry. The pages of this book contain the definition of a pastor in details. This book also highlights if a pastor is called divinely by God or if he is self-appointed. It also asks the question: Can anyone be or become a pastor? Which it then answers. A Shepherd's Responsibilities in Pastoral Ministry lists in details the distinguishing qualification and characteristics of a pastor or a man or woman of God, which includes being able to display spiritual maturity, having good financial uprightness, and having the much-needed gift of the Holy Spirit to activate the spirit of discernment. The overall representation is that they must be a good ambassador in displaying the Lord who had called them to lead His people. This book also informs us of certain personal and spiritual objectives of the leader/pastor, such as he or she must be devoted to their immediate family, exercise self-control, have an active prayer life, and have the ability to be gentle and humble in spirit. Not only are the pastors responsible to personally maintain their behaviors; they are called to show forth their spiritual responsibilities as well. These pages give examples of the pastors' function in ministering the word of God by teaching.
