Path Through Scripture, 2016

Under the Gaze of God G David Williams CP, 2020-11-27 The way I understand the gaze of God to have a defining influence on spiritual growth and development has as its overarching image the way a mother gazes at her infant at the breast It is a gaze that is tender all absorbing exclusive filled with wonder and love tranquil and protective Just as the mother's gaze engages the infant in a dialogue without words and provokes a response so too the gaze of God evokes a response from the human heart Just as the mutual gaze of mother and infant sets up a relationship which becomes the basis of communication so too the mutual gaze of God and the soul become the basis for prayer The main insight of the book is that the movement into union with God is circular rather than linear that it is not exclusively a movement into something new something that has not previously occurred but is also and more importantly a movement towards recapturing something which has already existed namely that relationship we enjoyed albeit pre-consciously at our mother's breast when God looked upon us and saw that we were very good

Revelation Through Science James G. Martin,2016-11-09 Revelation through Science is written for the educated non scientist who may be troubled by apparent conflicts between science and religion Are science and faith incompatible Astronomers physicists and biologists have now shown that the more deeply science probes nature the more it reveals evidence pointing us to God After reviewing concepts from those fields Revelation through Science adds new material from chemistry It describes organic structures that are profoundly vital for life yet too complex for self assembly without some guiding principle It should lift the burden from believers and seekers to realize that science is not the enemy of faith
