Path Of Long Remembrance Novel:

Time and Narrative, Volume 2 Paul Ricoeur, 2012-08-04 In volume 1 of this three volume work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing Now in volume 2 he examines these relations in fiction and theories of literature Ricoeur treats the question of just how far the Aristotelian concept of plot in narrative fiction can be expanded and whether there is a point at which narrative fiction as a literary form not only blurs at the edges but ceases to exist at all Though some semiotic theorists have proposed all fiction can be reduced to an atemporal structure Ricoeur argues that fiction depends on the reader's understanding of narrative traditions which do evolve but necessarily include a temporal dimension He looks at how time is actually expressed in narrative fiction particularly through use of tenses point of view and voice He applies this approach to three books that are in a sense tales about time Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Thomas Mann's Magic Mountain and Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past Ricoeur writes the best kind of philosophy critical economical and clear Eugen Weber New York Times Book Review A major work of literary theory and criticism under the aegis of philosophical hermeneutics I believe that it will come to have an impact greater than that of Gadamer's Truth and Method a work it both supplements and transcends in its contribution to our understanding of the meaning of texts and their relationship to the world Robert Detweiler Religion and Literature One cannot fail to be impressed by Ricoeur's encyclopedic knowledge of the subject under consideration To students of rhetoric the importance of Time and Narrative is all too evident to require extensive elaboration Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar Quarterly Journal of Speech

Proust Vincent Descombes, 1992 Through the voice of the narrator of Remembrance of Things Past Proust observes of the painter Elstir that the paintings are bolder than the artist Elstir the painter is bolder than Elstir the theorist This book applies the same distinction Proust the Proustian novel is bolder than Proust the theorist By this the author means that the novel is philosophically bolder that it pursues further the task Proust identifies as the writer's work to explain life to elucidate what has been lived in obscurity and confusion In this the novelist and the philosopher share a common goal to clarify the obscure in order to arrive at the truth It follows that Proust's real philosophy of the novel is to be found not in the speculative passages of Remembrance which merely echo the philosophical commonplaces of his time but in the truly novelistic or narrative portions of his text In Against Sainte Beuve Proust sets forth his ideas about literature in the form of a critique of the method of Sainte Beuve Scholars who have studied Proust's notebooks describe the way in which this essay was taken over by bits of narrative originally intended as illustration supporting its theses The philosophical portions of Remembrance were not added to the narrative as an afterthought designed to bring out its meaning What happened was the reverse the novel was born of a desire to illustrate the propositions of the essay Why then should we not find the novel more philosophically advanced than the essay Reversing the usual order followed by literary critics the author interprets the novel as an elucidation and not as a simple transposition of the essay The book is not only a general interpretation of Proust's novel and its construction it includes detailed discussions of such topics as literature and philosophy the nature of the literary genres the poetics of the novel the definition of art modernity and postmodernity and the sociology of literature     Select Novels ,1844     Book News ,1889     The Ethics and Aesthetics of Vulnerability in Contemporary British Fiction Jean-Michel Ganteau,2015-05-08 This book visits vulnerability in contemporary British fiction considering vulnerability in its relation to poetics politics ethics and trauma Vulnerability and risk have become central issues in contemporary culture and artistic productions have increasingly made it their responsibility to evoke various types of vulnerabilities from individual fragilities to economic and political forms of precariousness and dispossession Informed by trauma studies and the ethics of literature this book addresses such issues by focusing on the literary evocations of vulnerability and analyzing various aspects of vulnerable form as represented and performed in British narratives from contemporary classics by Peter Ackroyd Pat Barker Anne Enright Ian McEwan and Jeanette Winterson to less canonical texts by Nina Allan Jon McGregor and N Royle Chapters on romance elegy the ghost story and the state of the nation novel draw on a variety of theoretical approaches from the fields of trauma studies affect theory the ethics of alterity the ethics of care and the ethics of vulnerability among others Showcasing how the contemporary novel is the privileged site of the expression and performance of vulnerability and vulnerable form the volume broaches a poetics of vulnerability based on categories such as testimony loss unknowing temporal disarray and performance On top of providing a book length evocation of contemporary fictions of vulnerability and vulnerable form this volume contributes significantly to considerations of the importance of Trauma Studies to Contemporary Literature     Novels: The Parisians Edward Bulwer Lytton Lytton,1896     Lord Lytton's Novels ,1875

The New Century Book of Facts Carroll Davidson Wright,1909 Includes music     Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu,Roxana Oltean,Mihaela Precup,2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg s multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark     Lord Lytton's Novels: Eugene Aram
