Maximum Movies—Pulp Fictions Peter Stanfield, 2011-07-15 In the words of Richard Maltby Maximum Movies Pulp Fictions describes two improbably imbricated worlds and the piece of cultural history their intersections provoked One of these worlds comprises a clutch of noisy garish pulp movies Kiss Me Deadly Shock Corridor Fixed Bayonets I Walked with a Zombie The Lineup Terror in a Texas Town Ride Lonesome pumped out for the grind houses at the end of the urban exhibition chain by the studios B divisions and fly by night independents The other is occupied by critics intellectuals cinephiles and filmmakers such as Jean Luc Godard Manny Farber and Lawrence Alloway who championed the cause of these movies and incited the cultural guardians of the day by attacking a rigorously policed canon of tasteful rarified and ossified art objects Against the legitimate and in defense of the illegitimate in an insolent and unruly manner they agitated for the recognition of lurid sensational crime stories war pictures fast paced Westerns thrillers and gangster melodramas were claimed as examples of the true the real and the authentic in contemporary culture the foundation upon which modern film studies sits

Pulp Fiction - An Analysis of Storyline and Characters Sandra Radtke, 2007-09-26 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1.0 Dresden Technical University course The American Noir 6 entries in the bibliography language English abstract In this paper for the seminar American Noir I want to analyze Quentin Tarantino's 1994 movie Pulp Fiction Since he does not make use of computer based scenes or sumptuous tricks in any of his films it is only the storyline as well as the characters and the actors respectively that bear the responsibility of entertaining and fascinating the audience The success of Tarantino's works leads me to the conclusion that the aforementioned features have certainly been effective therefore I am going to concentrate on them in my seminar paper A special focus will be laid on the relationships between the protagonists because their way of interacting is essential for the plot Additionally the stylistic devices will be looked upon with a special attention for the ones that make Pulp Fiction a film noir Furthermore the relevance of mis en scene especially the setting of camera work and of time is to be discussed

Masculinity in Lesbian "Pulp" Fiction Paul Thompson, 2024-06-28 This book looks specifically and in depth for the first time at masculinity in cheap lesbian themed paperbacks of the two decades after WW2 It challenges established critical assumptions about the readership and sets the masculinity imagined in these novels against the masculinity crisis of the era in which they were written The key issue of these novels is couplehood as much as sexuality and the instability of masculinity leads to the instability of the couple Thompson coins the term heteroemulative to describe the struggle that both heterosexual and homosexual couples have in conforming to heteronormativity As several of these novels have been republished and remain in print they have taken on a new relevance to issues of sexuality and gender in the twentyfirst century and this study will attract readers within that area of interest A valuable read for sociologists studying gender roles and social historians of the cold war period in the United States It is suitable for readers of all academic levels from undergraduate through postgraduate to scholars and researchers but also for a general readership

Pulp Fictions of Medieval England Nicola McDonald, 2004-10 Pulp fictions of medieval England comprises ten essays on individual popular romances with a focus on romances that while enormously popular in the Middle Ages have been neglected by modern scholarship Each essay provides valuable introductory material and there is a sustained argument across the contributions that the romances invite innovative exacting and theoretically charged analysis However the essays do not support a single homogenous reading of popular romance the authors work with assumptions and come to conclusions about issues as fundamental as the genre's aesthetic codes its political and cultural ideologies and its historical consciousness that are different and sometimes opposed Nicola McDonald's collection and the romances it investigates are crucial to our understanding of the aesthetics of medieval narrative and to the ideologies of gender and sexuality race religion political formations social class ethics morality and national identity with which those narratives engage Postracial America? Vincent L. Stephens, Anthony Stewart, 2016-11-17 The concept of a postracial America the dream of a nation beyond race has attracted much attention over the course of the presidency of Barack Obama suggesting that this idea is peculiar to the contemporary moment alone Postracial America An Interdisciplinary Study attempts to broaden the application of this idea by situating it in contexts that demonstrate how the idea of the postracial has been with America since its founding and will continue to be long after the Obama administration's term ends The chapters in this volume explore the idea of the postracial in the United States through a variety of critical lenses including film studies literature aesthetics and conceptual thinking politics media representations race in relation to gender identity and sexuality and personal experiences Through this diverse interdisciplinary exploration this collection skeptically weighs the implications of holding up a postracial culture as an admirable goal for the United States Pulp Fiction of the 1920s and 1930s Gary Hoppenstand, 2013 Explores the weird and diverse fiction of popular pulp writers such as H P Lovecraft Robert E Howard and Clark Ashton Smith as well as pulp magazines such as Weird Tales This volume in the Critical Insights series presents a variety of new essays on the topic of popular pulp fiction and writers of the 1920s and 1930s focusing on those major contributors to the Weird Tales school
