Puppet Theater In Contemporary Indonesia New Approaches To Performance events:

Puppet Theater in Contemporary Indonesia Jan Mrázek, 2002 Solid and accessible scholarship about a multifaceted form of art The Routledge Companion to Puppetry and Material Performance Dassia N. Posner, Claudia Orenstein, John Bell, 2014-07-17 The Routledge Companion to Puppetry and Material Performance offers a wide ranging perspective on how scholars and artists are currently re evaluating the theoretical historical and theatrical significance of performance that embraces the agency of inanimate objects This book proposes a collaborative responsive model for broader artistic engagement in and with the material world Its 28 chapters aim to advance the study of the puppet not only as a theatrical object but also as a vibrant artistic and scholarly discipline This Companion looks at puppetry and material performance from six perspectives theoretical approaches to the puppet perspectives from practitioners revisiting history negotiating tradition material performances in contemporary theatre and hybrid forms Its wide range of topics which span 15 countries over five continents encompasses visual dramaturgy theatrical juxtapositions of robots and humans contemporary transformations of Indonesian wayang kulit Japanese ritual body substitutes recent European productions featuring toys clay and food The book features newly commissioned essays by leading scholars such as Matthew Isaac Cohen Kathy Foley Jane Marie Law Eleanor Margolies Cody Poulton and Jane Taylor It also celebrates the vital link between puppetry as a discipline and as a creative practice with chapters by active practitioners including Handspring Puppet Company's Basil Jones Redmoon's Jim Lasko and Bread and Puppet's Peter Schumann Fully illustrated with more than 60 images this volume comprises the most expansive English language collection of international puppetry scholarship to date Stunning Males and Powerful Females

Christina Sunardi, 2015-02-15 In east Javanese dance traditions like Beskalan and Ngremo musicians and dancers negotiate gender through performances where males embody femininity and females embody masculinity Christina Sunardi ventures into the regency of Malang in east Java to study and perform with dancers Through formal interviews and casual conversation Sunardi learns about their lives and art Her work shows how performers continually transform dance traditions to negotiate and renegotiate the boundaries of gender and sex sometimes reinforcing lines of demarcation sometimes transgressing them and sometimes doing both simultaneously But Sunardi's investigation moves beyond performance It expands notions of the spiritual power associated with female bodies and feminine behavior and the ways women men and waria males who dress and live as female access the magnetic power of femaleness A journey into understudied regions and ideas Stunning Males and Powerful Females reveals how performances seemingly fixed by tradition are instead dynamic environments for cultural negotiation and change surrounding questions of sex and gender Storied Island, 2023-07-31 Javanese literature is one of the world's richest and most unusual literary traditions yet it is little known today outside of Java Indonesia and a handful of western universities With its more than a millennium of documented history its complex interactions over the centuries with literature written in Sanskrit Arabic Persian Malay and Dutch its often symbiotic relationship with the performing arts of puppetry and dance and its own immense creativity and insight this vastly understudied literature offers a lens to understanding Java's fascinating world as well as human ingenuity more broadly. The essays in this volume Storied Island: New Explorations in Javanese Literature take a fresh look at questions and themes pertaining to Java's literature employing new theoretical and methodological lenses. Balinese Discourses on Music and Modernization Brita Heimark Renee, 2013-08-21 While many Western scholars have discussed the technical aspects of Balinese music or the traditional contexts for performance little has been written in Western languages about Balinese discourses on their music. This dissertation seeks to understand the experience of music in Bali according to Balinese voices through an analysis of oral and written dialogues on music mainly by musicians and dalangs shadow play puppeteers from the village of Sukawati scholars teachers administrators and students from the Indonesian College of the Arts STSI in the City of Denpasar. The study examines the influence of modernization on the traditional arts and their role in society. A concentration on Balinese discourses enables individual performers and scholars to represent themselves to a greater extent than previously seen in ethnomusicological scholarship making this study more of a critical discussion among equals than a Western interpretation of others. This approach permits a rare view into contemporary Balinese conceptions and practices of music. Durga's Mosque Stephen Headley, 2004 Stephen Headley's new book explores contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java. In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex the author sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamisation. Fluid Iron Tony Day, 2002-08-31 Fluid Iron is the first extended treatment of state formation in Southeast Asia from early to contemporary times and the first book length analysis of Western historical and ethnographic writing on the region. It includes critical assessments of the work of Clifford Geertz O.W. Wolters Benedict Anderson and other major scholars who have written on early colonial and modern Southeast Asian history and culture. Making use of the ideas of Weber Marx Foucault and postmodern and postcolonial theory Tony Day argues that culture must be restored to the study of Southeast Asian history so that the state and historical developments in the region can be returned to their own alternative historical contexts and trajectories. He employs a wide range of contemporary scholarship as well as Southeast Asian literary and historical texts inscriptions and temples to explore the kinds of concepts and practices kinship networks cosmologies gender identities bureaucracies rituals violence and aesthetics that have been used for centuries to build states. Highly readable and accessibly written Fluid Iron demonstrates that Southeast Asian state building has taken place in a part of the world that has always been a crossroads of cultural and transcultural change. Day urges Southeast Asians to learn more about the history of their own state formations so they can safeguard not only human freedom but also the incongruity of their unique region in the years ahead. Sounding Out the State of Indonesian Music Andrew McGraw, Christopher J. Miller, 2022-10-15 Sounding Out the State of Indonesian Music showcases the breadth and complexity of the music of Indonesia. By bringing together chapters on the merging of Batak musical preferences and popular music aesthetics the vernacular cosmopolitanism of a Balinese rock band the burgeoning underground noise scene the growing interest in kroncong in the United States and what is included and excluded on Indonesian media editors Andrew McGraw and Christopher J Miller expand the scope of Indonesian music studies Essays analyzing the perception of decline among gamelan musicians in Central Java changes in performing arts patronage in Bali how gamelan communities form between Bali and North America and reflecting on the refusion of American mathcore and Balinese gamelan offer new perspectives on more familiar topics Sounding Out the State of Indonesian Music calls for a new paradigm in popular music studies grapples with the imperative to decolonialize and recognizes the field's grounding in diverse forms of practice The Unforgettable Queens of Islam Shahla Haeri, 2020-03-26 A cross cultural and ethno historical perspective exploring the lives and legacies of several Muslim women rulers from medieval to modern times

Missionaries, Anthropologists, and Music in the Indonesian Archipelago Anna Maria Busse Berger, Henry Spiller, 2025-03-18 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Although the history of Indonesian music has received much attention from ethnomusicologists and Western composers alike almost nothing has been written on the interaction of missionaries with local culture This study represents the first attempt to concentrate on the musical dimension of missionary activities in Indonesia In fourteen essays a group of distinguished scholars show the complexity of the topic while some missionaries did important scholarship on local music making recordings and attempting to use local music in services others tried to suppress whatever they found Many were collaborating closely with anthropologists who admitted freely that they could not have done their work without them And both parties brought colonial biases into their work By grappling with these realities and records this book is a collective effort to decolonize the project of making music histories
