Pursuing Justice And Peace In South Africa:

Pursuing Justice and Peace in South Africa Hendrik W. van der Merwe, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1989 and written by a long time peacemaker who commanded respect from most political camps in South Africa this book advocated constructive intervention in the South African conflict It showed the growing element of pragmatic flexibility in the white leadership and argued that this more rational approach combined with moral reform among the white population promised reasonable prospects for the constructive accommodation of conflict in South Africa In 1984 the author arranged the first meetings between government supporters and the ANC in exile in Lusaka breaking a 24 year deadlock and significantly influencing public opinion in South Africa

Pursuing Justice in Africa Jessica Johnson, George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines These include activism and tenure international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law morality and rights While the chapters are grounded in local experiences they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L Earle Patrick Hoenig Stacey Hynd Fred Nyongesa Ikanda Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Anna Macdonald Bernadette Malunga Alan Msosa Benson A Mulemi Holly Porter Duncan Scott Olaf Zenker

Religion Seeking Justice and Peace (Penerbit USM) Chandra Muzaffar, 2010 Religion Seeking Justice and Peace not only highlights the values that the different religions share in their pursuit of justice and peace but also provides concrete examples of how individuals and institutions from different religious backgrounds have worked for justice and peace throughout history The book also exposes the danger of religious extremism religious exclusivism and other such negative traits to the struggle for justice and peace It takes cognisance of the impact of the larger environment upon religious ideals and at the same time makes a plea for the application of universal values and principles embodied in the various religions to politics Economics culture and society This is particularly important some of the contributors argue at a time like this when humanity is confronted with multiple global crises

Injustice, Violence and Peace Hennie P. P. Lötter, 1997 This book argues that the secret to the political miracle achieved in South Africa is a comprehensive change in the conception of justice as guiding political institutions Pursuing justice is a moral imperative that has practical value as a cost efficient way of dealing with conflict This case study in applied ethics and social theory patiently explains how justice in the new South Africa restores humanity and establishes lasting peace whereas injustice in apartheid South Africa led to conflict and dehumanization A Handbook of International Peacebuilding John Paul Lederach, Janice Moomaw Jenner, 2002-10-10 This much needed handbook offers conflict resolution professionals working or planning to work in foreign countries a critical step by step guide for dealing with difficult and potentially dangerous disputes in other nations The editors John Paul Lederach and Janice Moomaw Jenner have gathered a stellar panel of seasoned experts who illustrate how to approach international peacebuilding with effective actions and approaches gained through experience that will contribute ultimately to a more positive outcome Based on the experience of the contributors work as global peace brokers the book includes a wide array of guidelines pragmatic approaches and models of constructive culturally appropriate ways to respond to conflict

Injustice, Violence, and Peace H.P.P. (Hennie) Lötter, 2021-11-01 This book argues that the secret to the political miracle achieved in South Africa is a comprehensive change in the conception of justice as guiding political institutions Pursuing justice is a moral imperative that has practical value as a cost efficient way of dealing with conflict This case study in applied ethics and social theory patiently explains how justice in the new South Africa restores humanity and establishes lasting peace whereas injustice in apartheid South Africa led to conflict and dehumanization Routledge Companion to Peace and Conflict Studies Sean Byrne, Thomas Matyók, Imani Michelle Scott, Jessica Senehi, 2019-07-24 This Companion examines contemporary challenges in Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and offers practical solutions to these problems Bringing together chapters from new and established global scholars the volume explores and critiques the foundations of Peace and Conflict Studies in an effort to advance the discipline in light of contemporary local and global actors The book examines the following eight specific components of Peace and Conflict Studies Peace and conflict studies praxis Structure agency tension as it relates to social justice nonviolence and relationship building Gender masculinity and sexuality The role of partnerships and allies in racial ethnic and religious peacebuilding Culture and identity Critical and emancipatory peacebuilding International conflict transformation and peacebuilding Global responses to conflict It argues that new critical and emancipatory peacebuilding and conflict transformation strategies are needed to address the complex cultural economic political and social conflicts of the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peace studies conflict resolution transitional justice reconciliation studies social justice studies and international relations

Leaving the shadow of Pain. A cross-cultural exploration of truth, forgiveness, reconciliation and healing Doris H. Gray, 2020-08-21 In this small volume Doris H Gray shares her reflections on human responses to trauma especially when it is kept secret and on attempts at healing that transcend boundaries She offers insights on how individuals recover from trauma in particular when official procedures for redress and professional help are not available She challenges conventional notions of forgiveness and reconciliation which often put the pressure on victims to move forward Most of all Gray finds that victims efforts to come to terms with trauma are not disconnected but are related across time culture religion and geography

Part of this book narrates Gray's personal experiences of growing up with her father who was a Holocaust survivor, the sudden death of her oldest child, her own rape, and soon thereafter the death of her husband. She describes how these events shaped her scholarly research, especially that on women who were victims of torture and extreme discrimination during the Tunisian dictatorship of Zine El Abidine Ben Ali (1989-2011). It is the sum of these experiences that lays the foundation for this brave book. Dr. Doris H. Gray was Director of the Hillary Clinton Center for Women's Empowerment at Al Akhawayn University in Ifrane, Morocco, where she also served as Professor of Women and Gender Studies. Before moving to Morocco, she taught in the Gender Studies Program and the Department of Modern Languages at Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida, USA. Her research focuses on gender and women's rights and transitional justice in Tunisia, Morocco, and Algeria. She has previously published three books: Peacemaking in International Conflict I. William Zartman, 2007. This updated and expanded edition of the highly popular volume originally published in 1997 describes the tools and skills of peacemaking that are currently available and critically assesses their usefulness and limitations. Guide to Specialists United States Institute of Peace,
