Once you know how to properly identify and evaluate jewelry, you will be able to buy more quality pieces for less of a financial investment by understanding the principles of value. Book jacket. Antique Trader Antiques & Collectibles Price Guide 2007 Kyle Husfloen, 2006-10-20 Lists more than eleven thousand items providing descriptions, values, and identification tips for a broad spectrum of popular collectibles. The Innkeeper's Secret Don Omei, 2003 Many of the greatest stories in the Bible leave us yearning for more details. This author has written a story involving the family from the Bethlehem Inn during the year before the birth of Jesus. Jesus' birth brings about a dramatic change in the innkeeper's life who is perhaps the first convert to Jesus. The year before Jesus is born in Bethlehem, Zaham the innkeeper hires a traveling builder to convert a feed storage room at the back of the inn to a secret room for his valuables. The oldest son Jubal is a traveling courier who comes upon a young woman alone at night on the road north of Bethsaida; her name is Kerith and she is the only member of an extended family to escape abduction by a band of Roman army deserters. This entire group travels by horseback east into the unknown toward Babylon, eventually bound for Egypt. Jubal and Kerith fall in love, marry, and walk home to Bethlehem. They find lodging with a couple in Nazareth. Joseph and Mary for two nights. At home in Bethlehem, Kerith is popular with all except Jubal's parents. By winter, Jubal reckons the band holding Kerith's family may cross the salt sea to the south, heading west; he makes an excuse for business to leave home and travels south to the wells at Punon, the area's main water source south of the salt sea. He learns a band resembling the one he seeks passed by four days before. Jubal pursues the group on a camel and finally catches up to them. Days later, at dusk, he attacks the enemy by cutting loose their tethered mounts and frightens them into stampeding over the camp of sleeping men. He frees Kerith's parents and the three of them and the camel begin walking north for Bethlehem. When Joseph and Mary arrive in Bethlehem for the census, Zaham refuses to even talk about a room for them. Kerith takes them to an animal shelter in a cave behind her house because her own house is full of travelers, some of whom are ill. Kerith makes them as comfortable as possible and calls in a midwife. The angel who first talked to Mary then Joseph appears to them and assures them all will be well and Jesus is born at that time. Meanwhile, Zaham had a bad day because of a promise by Johanan the census taker to reward him with extra money and a gold piece for the use of his secret room was cancelled due to a disagreement with a courtesan. She leaves Johanan abruptly and Johanan leaves Bethlehem for Jerusalem. Zaham is beside himself with anger and self-pity. Sleepless, he decides to murder his family, commit suicide, and end everyone's misery at once. The angel appears to Zaham in his bedroom. He shows him the error of his ways and points out how all the things that he dislikes are actually projects that needed to be accomplished, including the secret room for the safety of the holy family Zaham finally sees the light and commits himself and his family to the well being of Jesus early years

Higher Thought is a spiritual movement that coalesced in the United States in the early 19th century. New Thought was seen by its adherents as succeeding ancient thought, accumulated wisdom, and philosophy from a variety of origins such as Ancient Greek, Roman, Egyptian, Chinese, Taoist, Vedic, Hindu, and Buddhist cultures, and their related belief systems, primarily regarding the interaction between thought, belief, consciousness in the human mind, and the effects of these within and beyond the human mind. Though no direct line of transmission is traceable, many adherents to New Thought in the 19th and 20th centuries claimed to be direct descendants from those systems. Crime in the Art and Antiquities World Stefano Manacorda, Duncan Chappell, 2011-02-26 The theft trafficking and falsification of cultural property and cultural heritage objects are crimes of a particularly complex nature which often have international ramifications and significant economic consequences Organized criminal groups of various types and origins are involved in these illegal acts The book Crime in the Art and Antiquities World has contributions both from researchers specializing in the illegal trafficking of art and representatives of international institutions involved with prevention and detection of cultural property related crimes such as Interpol and UNESCO This work is a unique and useful reference for scholars and private and public bodies alike This innovative volume also includes an Appendix of the existing legal texts i e international treaties conventions and resolutions which have not previously been available in a single volume As anyone who has undertaken research or study relating to the protection of cultural heritage discovers one of the frustrations encountered is the absence of ready access to the multi various international instruments which exist in the field Since the end of the Second World War these instruments have proliferated first in response to increasing recognition of the need for concerted multinational action to give better protection to cultural property during armed conflict as well as ensuring the repatriation of cultural property looted during such conflict Thus the international community agreed in 1954 upon a Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict That Convention typically referred to as the Hague Convention of 1954 is now to be found reproduced in the Appendix to this book Appendix I together with 25 other important and diverse documents that we believe represent a core of the essential international sources of reference in this subject area In presenting these documents in one place we hope that readers will now experience less frustration while having the benefit of supplementing their understanding and interpretation of the various instruments by referring to individual chapters in the book dealing with a particular issue or topic For example Chapter 9 by Mathew Bogdanos provides some specific and at times rather depressing descriptions of the application in the field of the Hague Convention 1954 and its Protocols Appendices II and III to the armed conflict in Iraq Reference may also be had to the resolution of the UN Security Council in May 2003 Appendix VI urging Member States to take appropriate steps to facilitate the safe return of looted Iraqi cultural property taken from the Iraq National Museum the National Library and other locations in Iraq Despite such pleas the international antiquities market seems to have continued to trade such looted property in a largely unfettered manner as demonstrated by Neil Brodie in Chapter 7 Fittingly as referred to in the Preface to this book the last document contained in the Appendix Appendix 26 is the Charter of Courmayeur formulated at a ground breaking international workshop on the protection of cultural property conducted by the International Scientific and Professional Advisory Council ISPAC to the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Program in Courmayeur Italy in June 1992 The Charter makes mention of many of the instruments contained in the Appendix while also foreshadowing many of the developments which have taken place in the ensuing two decades designed to combat illicit trafficking in cultural property through international collaboration and action in the arena of crime prevention and criminal justice
