Anticultism in France Donald A. Westbrook, 2024-06-30 This Element introduces readers to the problem of anticultism and antireligious movements in France. The first section offers an overview of anticultism in France, including the paradoxical place of modern French secularism, laïcité, that has shaped a culture prejudiced against minority religions and new religions, sectes, or cults, and impacted Europe more broadly. This includes state-sponsored expressions in particular MIVILUDES, an organization funded by the French government to monitor cultic or sectarian deviances. The second section takes up the case of the American-born Church of Scientology, tracing its history in the country since the late 1950s and how it has become a major focus of anticultists in France. The Element concludes with reflections on the future of new and minority religions in France. A timeline provides major dates in the history of anticultism in modern French history, with a focus on items of relevance to Scientology in France.

Secularism Or Democracy? Veit-Michael Bader, 2007 Policies dealing with religious diversity in liberal democratic states, as well as the established institutions that enforce those policies, are increasingly under pressure. Politics and political theory are caught in a trap between the fully secularized state and neo-corporate regimes of selective cooperation between states and organized religion. This volume proposes an original, comprehensive, and multidisciplinary approach to problems of governing religious diversity, combining moral and political philosophy, constitutional law, history, sociology, and religious anthropology. Drawing on such diverse scholarship, Secularism or Democracy proposes an associational governance, a moderately libertarian, flexible variety of democratic institutional pluralism as the plausible third way to overcome the inherent deficiencies of the predominant models.

The Ecumenical Movement and the Making of the European Community Lucian Leuștean, 2014 A study that assesses the political history of religious dialogue in the European Community, detailing close relations between churchmen and high-ranking officials in European institutions immediately after the 1950 Schuman Declaration.
