Securities Arbitration Law And Procedure:

Securities Arbitration Marilyn B. Cane,1991-01-01 Securities arbitration Marilyn Blumberg Cane,Patricia A. Shub,1991-09-01 Arbitration Law Handbook Roger Hopkins,Benjamin Horn,2020-11-25 The Arbitration Law Handbook collects together in one volume the laws in force in more than twenty countries with the main procedural rules used in each of those countries Each section has a short overview identifying relevant treaty obligations the main arbitral bodies and the principal laws in force Additionally there is an international section in which the UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules are set out and in which the major international conventions relating to arbitration such as the New York Convention and table of signatories are reproduced The section also includes the ICSID Arbitration Rules applicable to the settlement of investment disputes as well as those of WIPO applicable to the settlement of intellectual property disputes Carbonneau on International Arbitration Thomas E. Carbonneau,2011-01-01 The chapters of this volume represent the majority of Professor Carbonneau s scholarly writings on the subject of international commercial arbitration They reflect his interest over the course of thirty years of law teaching in international litigation comparative law and of course international arbitration Some of the chapters are of a recent vintage while others were written a decade or two ago Whatever their date of production the chapters have a continuing professional interest Each addresses some of the major issues of trans border arbitration law A number of chapters emphasize the importance of courts in developing and maintaining a legal culture that is hospitable to arbitration The work of the courts has been instrumental to the reception of arbitration in the United States and in several European jurisdictions The courts can make or break arbitration by upholding arbitration agreements and enforcing arbitral awards Other chapters underscore that arbitration can operate as a complete legal system It not only provides workable trial procedures but arbitrators can also create law in their rulings With the addition of an internal arbitral appellate mechanism arbitrations can function with almost absolute independence The world law on arbitrations seems to favor the a national and a juridical operation of the arbitral process A few of the chapters recognize that arbitration is being increasingly employed to resolve political or mixed political and commercial disputes Investment arbitration and BITs are the most recent expression of this development it had been apparent in WTO and NAFTA dispute resolution The Iran U S Claims Tribunal presented the first great occasion for assessing the vocation of arbitration in a mixed dispute situation While arbitration has made significant inroads in this area political sovereignty remains resistant to the imposition of limitations In many less visible political cases determinations are nonetheless made and rendered enforceable The concluding chapters address more specific developments in the field of ICA A number of cases point to the strong perhaps overweening support of the judiciary for arbitration The courts in some jurisdictions support arbitration unequivocally and are bent upon a single outcome no matter the impact on doctrine Lawyer presence in the arbitral process has lead to increased formalization in some proceedings The judicialization of arbitration tilts the process toward the protection of rights and hinders its ability to function effectively and reach finality Lawyers can readily misunderstand and undermine the gravamen of arbitration The concluding chapters also establish that the UK Arbitration Act 1996 is one of the world s outstanding arbitration statutes It rivals and bests the UNCITRAL Model Law on ICA and is the equal of the French codified law on arbitration Finally the express text of the New York Arbitration Convention appears to have been altered significantly by court practice The possible limitations of national law have been neutralized and the provisions of the Convention articulate a truly trans border regulation of the enforcement of awards In sum the chapters in this book reflect the author s lifetime work in the area of international arbitration and are required reading for all those practicing in the field law students arbitrators academics and practicing lawyers

Compulsory Arbitration Richard A. Bales, 2019-06-07 This is the first book on a crucial issue in human resource management In recent years employers have begun to require as a condition of employment that their nonunion employees agree to arbitrate rather than litigate any employment disputes including claims of discrimination As the number of employers considering such a requirement soars so does the fear that compulsory arbitration may eviscerate the statutory rights of employees Richard A Bales explains that the advantages of arbitration are clear Much faster and less expensive than litigation arbitration provides a forum for the many employees who are shut out of the current litigative system by the cost and by the tremendous backlog of cases On the other hand employers could use arbitration abusively Bales views the current situation as an ongoing experiment As long as the courts continue to enforce agreements that are fundamentally fair to employees the experiment will continue After tracing the history of employment arbitration in the nonunion sector Bales explains how employment arbitration has actually worked in the securities industry and at Brown Root a company with a comprehensive dispute resolution process He concludes by summarizing the advantages disadvantages and policy implications of adopting arbitration as the preeminent method of resolving disputes in the American workforce major arbitral institutions on interim measures The author not only describes the current position of law in India and other Model Law jurisdictions on interim measures but also reveals a comprehensive understanding of the requests for interim measures and their enforcement in domestic international and foreign seated arbitrations This book engages in a comprehensive and clear discussion on the fine line between court assistance and court intervention especially in the case of interim measures and suggests draft provisions that India and other jurisdictions can adopt in order to align with the 2006 revisions to the Model Law to foster certainty predictability and efficiency in case of interim measures in international commercial arbitration Arbitration Law of Czech Republic: Practice and Procedure Alexander J. Belohlávek, 2013-03-01 A comprehensive review of the arbitration law and practice in the Czech Republic including discussion of arbitration practice and procedure an examination of the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal the appointment of arbitrators including the challenge and replacement of arbitrators an analysis of the various types of awards including a discussion on deliberations agreements settlements and the costs of arbitration a discussion on the amendment and challenge of awards including the liability of arbitrators and a review of the enforcement of domestic and foreign arbitration awards International Trade and Business Law Review: Gabriel Moens, Roger Jones, 2009-03-11 The International Trade and Business Law Review publishes leading articles comments and case notes as well as book reviews dealing with international trade and business law arbitration law foreign law and comparative law It provides the legal and business communities with information knowledge and understanding of recent developments in international trade business and international commercial arbitration The Review contributes in a scholarly way to the discussion of these developments while being informative and having practical relevance to business people and lawyers The Review also devotes a section to the Willem C Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot and publishes the memoranda prepared by teams coached by Professor Gabri l A Moens The Review is edited at the Murdoch University School of Law in Perth Australia The Editors in Chief are Mr Roger Jones Partner Latham Watkins LLP Chicago and Gabri l A Moens Dean and Professor of Law Murdoch Law School It is an internationally refereed journal The Review is supervised by an international board of editors that consists of leading international trade law practitioners and academics from the European Union the United States Asia and Australia The Student Editors for Volume XII are Sybil Almeida Gianni Bei Luke Rotondella and Nicholas Summers from the Murdoch Law School Arbitration Law and Practice in China Jingzhou Tao, 2012-07-01 The new rules of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission CIETAC that came into effect on 1 May 2012 are widely recognized as the full commitment of the Chinese government to the international arbitration system Clarifications of the scope of the Arbitration Law to include contractual disputes disputes over rights and interests in property and disputes between legal persons and other organizations as well as the firm establishment of the arbitration agreement as the sole and exclusive basis for founding the jurisdiction of an arbitral tribunal greatly allay any residual apprehension on the part of foreign investors This third edition of a book that has been widely relied upon since 2003 by business people and their counsel with interests in China is the first publication to offer comprehensive and authoritative coverage of the CIETAC Rules 2012. In addition to the matchless features for which earlier editions are so greatly valued such as in depth coverage of enforcement of foreign judgements in China and of Chinese judgements elsewhere, measures to overcome local protectionism, effects of China's most important bilateral investment treaties, BITs and arbitration related interpretations of the Supreme People's Court, the new edition highlights such aspects of the CIETAC Rules 2012 as the following: the new mechanism of consolidation of arbitrations, power to grant interim measures via the forms of procedural orders or interim awards, procedure of suspension of arbitration, conservator measures, interlocutory award and partial award combining conciliation with arbitration and expedited process under a new summary procedure. With first hand expert guidance on the actual handling of arbitration cases, recommended arbitration agreement clauses for numerous contingencies, case studies and comparative cases to elucidate the handling of specific issues, abundant legal instruments for quick direct reference to the relevant law and an annex with English texts of the most important laws and regulations, this book offers all the details and insights a practitioner needs. While Arbitration Law and Practice in China is primarily a detailed practical examination of Chinese arbitration practice and related laws, the Third Edition's special significance lies in its thorough and timely coverage of the CIETAC Rules 2012. For this reason, especially, it will be of great practical value to business people everywhere operating or seeking opportunities to partner with Chinese enterprises. It will also be useful to corporate counsel, arbitration institutions and students of dispute resolution.
