Students in Architecture an elaborated version of lectures he had given since 1973 at Delft University of Technology This immensely successful book has gone through many reprints and has also been published in Japanese German Italian Portuguese Taiwanese Dutch Greek Polish Iranian Korean and Chinese Space and the Architect is the second book written by Hertzberger It charts the backgrounds to his work of recent years and the ideas informing it drawing on a wide spectrum of subjects and designs by artists precursors past masters and colleagues though with his own work persistently present as a reference Space is its principal theme physical space but also the mental or intellectual regions the architect calls upon during the process of designing Once again Hertzberger s broad practical experience his ideas and his seemingly inexhaustible library of images are a major source of inspiration for anyone whose concern is the design of space The Spanish Eye Robert Havard,2007 The guiding principle of this title is that the sister arts of painting and poetry are mutually illuminating their common currency being the visual image Five masters El Greco Velazquez Goya Picasso and Dali are discussed with a view to distinguishing what is peculiarly Spanish in their way of looking at reality Rudder Thomas Fleming Day,1913 Painting, Science, and the Perception of Coloured Shadows Paul Smith,2021-03-17 Many artists and scientists including Buffon Goethe and Philipp Otto Runge who observed the vividly coloured shadows that appear outdoors around dawn and dusk or indoors when a candle burns under waning daylight chose to describe their colours as beautiful Paul Smith explains what makes these ephemeral effects worthy of such appreciation or how depictions of coloured shadows have genuine aesthetic and epistemological significance This multidisciplinary book synthesises methodologies drawn from art history close pictorial analysis psychology and neuroscience theories of colour constancy history of science the changing paradigms used to explain coloured shadows and philosophy theories of perception and aesthetic value drawn from Wittgenstein and Merleau Ponty This title will be of interest to scholars in art history art theory and the history of science and technology Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm,Marcia Sá Cavalcante Schuback,2024-02-06 I shall here present my life writes Descartes in Discourse on Method as in a painting and my method as a fable Through the Eyes of Descartes demonstrates how a Cartesian aesthetics is interwoven in his thought It brings together a variety of materials his metaphysical writings and essays in natural philosophy through to his letters drawings and printed images Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback seek to bring Descartes into dialogue with contemporary phenomenology as well as contemporary psychoanalytic thought They focus on how perception interacts with emotions and thought and the way in which our gaze is directed toward limit phenomena of beauty and fascination In Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback counter the traditional picture of Descartes by presenting his work in an entirely different light a Descartes of the arts of sensibility of inner images and of imagination Victorian Artists Quentin Bell,2023-07-14 First published in 1967 Victorian Artists documents the painting of the Victorian period that is the period between the death of Constable and William IV in 1837 the first Post Impressionist painting in 1910 and the end of an epoch in British painting Professor Bell has given special attention to some of the pre Raphaelite artists and to Sickert and the Camden Town group These most illuminating and diverting essays which originated as Slade lectures at Oxford combined with a large collection of illustrations make this a unique discussion of a period whose aesthetic influence is still widely evident This book will be of interest to students of art and history Macmillan's Magazine David Masson, George Grove, John Morley, Mowbray Walter Morris, 1872 The Holland Park Circle Caroline Dakers, 1999-01-01 This book the first major study of the Holland Park Circle of artists architects and their patrons is both an engrossing narrative of their lives works and influence and a perceptive analysis of the subtle relationships between high Victorian taste and mercantile values BOOK JACKET Screening Woolf Earl G. Ingersoll, 2016-12-06 As the subtitle indicates this book has three majors concerns The first and most important concern is an examination of the film adaptations of Woolf's novels To the Lighthouse Orlando and Mrs Dalloway in the order the films were released This is the heart of the matter a fairly conventional effort to acknowledge film reviews as well as the criticism of academicians in film or literature as a starting point for a fresh view of these three film adaptations Since many film specialists prefer that no film ever be adapted from literary fiction and many literature specialists have similarly wished that their favorite novels had never been filmed the effort to mediate the two sides can be challenging Of the three films To the Lighthouse is the least successful tending toward the old Masterpiece Theater mode of attempting to be faithful to the source text to use the term of the film theorist Robert Stam but missing the essence of the novel Director Sally Potter's Orlando is cinematically the most venturesome and attractive although some Woolf readers condemn Potter's erasure of Woolf's intent to celebrate her affair with Vita Sackville West whose son Nigel Nicolson called Woolf's Orlando the longest and most charming love letter in literature Mrs Dalloway tends toward the Merchant Ivory style of treating literary masterworks indeed the film credits include a debt of gratitude to the producer director partnership and is generally carried by the star power of Vanessa Redgrave although it is difficult to imagine her having a crush on another young woman even at eighteen The book's second concern is Woolf's interest in what she would call the cinema As a member of Bloomsbury she saw and participated in the discussion of the cinema especially avant garde films which she considered to be more the future of cinema than film adaptations upon which she heaped great scorn for their ravenous if not rapacious consumption of vulnerable literary fiction such as Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina Woolf specialists such as Leslie Hankins proclaim her one of the earliest and most significant British film theorists for the brilliant essay The Cinema 1925 as film was just beginning to establish itself as art and not merely popular entertainment The third concern is a complex effort to explore the David Hare Stephen Daldry film adaptation of Michael Cunningham's Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours an homage to Mrs Dalloway in which Virginia Woolf has a starring role as portrayed by Oscar winner Nicole Kidman The film and Kidman's prosthetic nose produced a violent division among the Woolfians who either commended its bringing legions of new readers to Mrs Dalloway and potentially to Woolf Mrs Dalloway becoming the best seller it could not have been in her lifetime or were outraged by the film's diminishment of probably the most important female British novelist of the 20th century Even Nobel Laureate Doris Lessing spoke out against the travesty of a novelist she considered a foremother of later 20th century writers     The London Quarterly Review ,1956
