to America's great Inland Northwest seeking adventure and summer employment. He finds both and more and in the process develops a passion for the beautiful untamed landscape and its colorful rural culture. And during his stay after exhausting several romantic prospects he also meets the girl who will redefine his life. A glorious Indian summer ensues bolstering youthful infatuation. Haakon and Kari's burgeoning love melds seamlessly into their surrounding wilderness playground. Their splendor grows and in their confidence they feel it manifest itself as a ripple racing across the cosmos. Yet the carefree warm daylight hours eventually recede. The Northwest's signature cold and dampness returns. Though the lovers procrastinate they know a hard decision is imminent and that fate threatens to launch them on two separate trajectories. College marriage career parenthood graduations and retirement come to pass and in time Haakon finds himself at a crossroad. His choice and an unlikely event grant him a second chance to make amends for a previous painful decision. Sometimes It Feels Like Far is a tale of adventure beauty and lost love all in a romanticized world where the mountains and the sky and the mist merge into one. Gary Spetz tells of a time and place and people he had known well. As a lifelong painter he vividly portrays Haakon's journey with brushstrokes of words. He writes like he paints boldly and with earthy realism. To author artist Spetz the setting of Sometimes It Feels Like Far is as paramount as the novel's sentiments. Best Books for Young Adults Holly

All That Road Going A. G. Mojtabai, 2008-05-21 In the middle of the night somewhere in Oklahoma or is it Missouri a bus hurtles down an anonymous American highway. Its passengers among them two children traveling on their own a retired salesman an unwed teenage mother an unemployed chemist and the driver who ferries and broods over all of them are in the middle of their journeys. Soon two of the passengers will be lost and then the bus itself will lose its way. The open road and before that the open frontier have long been part of the American romance cherished features of the nation's traditional vision of itself. In her latest novel A. G. Mojtabai stands this tradition on its head. Instead of the expansive thrust into unknown territory the camaraderie of the open road adventure and the joys of vagabondage we witness constriction isolation and fear. Instead of freedom we find people fleeing from coast to coast in search of home and the ever beckoning ever retreating promise of a better life. Richly drawn evocative and thought provoking All That Road Going is a challenging new departure from the road novel canon. Country Music Irwin Stambler, Grelun Landon, 2000-07-14 A comprehensive reference source on the history impact and current state of country music offering portraits of figures in the country music world. All Music Guide to Country Michael Erlewine, 1997-06 Reviews and rates the best recordings of country artists and groups provides biographies of the artists and charts the evolution of country music.

Nine Below Zero Kevin Canty, 2000-09-05 From the acclaimed author of A Stranger in this World and Into the Great Wide Open comes a novel that explores reckless love and penetrates the unrelenting winter landscape of the American West. Marvin Deernose a Native American carpenter and recovering alcoholic has just returned to his Montana hometown with hopes of finding a new start. Early one snowy morning

Marvin notices an overturned Cadillac down an embankment After rescuing the elderly Senator Henry Neihart who has just suffered a stroke Marvin is invited to the Senator s estate where he is immediately drawn to Justine Gallego the Senator s wayward unhappily married granddaughter As these tarnished souls recognize their profound shared attraction they dive headlong into a dangerous and intense affair that forever alters the course of their lives The Senior High School
