Stories of Transformation and Hope Irene Alexander,2014-01-08 What if the people I know were to be transformed by an encounter with the cosmos The immigrant woman who argues with the doctor the homeless man on the street corner the corrupt politician the fisherman risking his life to make a living What if I met up with them in a decade and found that each had experienced a life transformation after meeting the God Man Jesus who touched them in the deepest core of their being And what if one of Jesus closest companions Mary Magdalene was to meet them and listen to their story the story of their life and their encounter with the one who brought transformation This book collects the imagined stories of men and women of whom we know very little only the bare bones of their encounters and turns them into stories for today for the immigrant woman the homeless man the politician and the fisherman any of us who want to deeply encounter a God who meets us as a real person The stories touch us because they are refashioned into the contextual thinking of our time and our culture and yet they reflect the reality of another time a time when God walked among us in our streets and our neighborhood and into our homes Mary s gospel calls us from self woven narratives and familiar scripts to a place of transformation an encounter with the Divine to become more fully who we long to be on earth as it is in heaven Book jacket
