Ray Brown,2000 Bridging the Knowledge Divide Stewart Marshall,Wanjira Kinuthia,Wallace Taylor,2009-04-01 In many international settings developing economies are in danger of declining as the digital divide becomes the knowledge divide This decline attacks the very fabric of cohesion and purpose for these regional societies delivering increased social health economic and sustainability problems The examples in this book will provide leaders policy developers researchers students and community with successful strategies and principles of ICT use in education to address these needs This book will discuss how educational technology can be used to transform education and assist developing communities to close the knowledge divide It will provide comprehensive coverage of educational technology in development in different professions and parts of world The book will provide examples of best practice case studies and principles for educators community leaders researchers and policy advisers on the use of educational technology for development In particular it will provide examples of how education can be provided more flexibly in order to provide access to hitherto disadvantaged communities and individuals Nordic Voices

,2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago Innovation ,2000

Diversity in Africa Kurt April,Marylou Shockley,2006-11-24 Africa s diversity is its greatest resource and challenge In this book leaders from business government academia and the voluntary sector discuss the implications of this diversity for leadership Throughout contributors relate organisational issues to the social political and cultural contexts and focus on the role of effective leadership Regional Survey: Highway traffic ,1927 Information Literacy Around the World Christine Bruce,Philip C. Candy,2000 Information literacy around the world advances in programs and research Occasional papers Centre for Information Studies Charles Sturt University no 1 Laboring Below the Line Frank Munger,2002-04-25 As the distribution of wealth between rich and poor in the United States grew more and more unequal over the past twenty years this economic gap assumed a life of its own in the popular culture The news and entertainment media increasingly portrayed the lives of the poor with such stereotypes as the lazy welfare mother and the thuggish teen offering Americans few ways to learn how the other half really lives Laboring Below the Line works to bridge this gap by synthesizing a wide range of qualitative scholarship on the working poor The result is a coherent nuanced portrait of how life is lived below the poverty line and a compelling analysis of the systemic forces in which poverty is embedded and through which it is perpetuated

Laboring Below the Line explores the role of interpretive research in understanding the causes and effects of poverty. Drawing on perspectives of the working poor, welfare recipients, and marginally employed men and women, the contributors, an interdisciplinary roster of ethnographers, oral historians, qualitative sociologists, and narrative analysts, dissect the life circumstances that affect the personal outlook, ability to work, and expectations for the future of these people. For example, Carol Stack views the work aspirations of an Oakland teenager for whom a job is important even though it strains her academic performance. And Ruth Buchanan looks at low wage telemarketing workers who are attempting to move up the economic ladder while balancing family, education, and other important commitments. What emerges is a compelling picture of low wage workers, one that illustrates the precarious circumstances of individuals struggling with the economic conditions and institutions that surround them. Each chapter also explores the capacity for economic survival from a different angle, with ancillary commentary complementing the ethnographies with perspectives from other fields of study, such as economics. At this moment of governmental retrenchment, ethnography's complex, nonstereotypical portraits of individual people fighting against poverty are especially important. Laboring Below the Line reveals the ambiguities of real lives, the potential for individuals to change in unexpected ways, and the even greater intricacy of the collective life of a community. American Highway & Transportation Monthly, 1927 The Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America, 1999

The Code of Federal Regulations is the codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government.

Segregated Information Highway: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Segregated Information Highway : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
