escaping a double maths lesson As it turned out Jo's power output was off the chart the highest ever recorded for a female of her age and she was quickly talent spotted for the junior cycling team Not that the journey between that moment and Jo's subsequent status as a setter of multiple world records and a double Olympic champion was plain sailing With no cycling experience Jo was well behind her peers who had been prepped for life on a bike since their infancy In addition Jo was and remains to this day a very shy girl not least because of her condition alopecia universalis which took her hair from her just as her teenage years were about to strike This is the story of how she battled her insecurities and doubts as well as judgement and even ridicule from people around her to become one of the most successful and respected athletes of her era All of which she accomplished without compromising any of the essential good heartedness and optimism that characterises her If you have ever been tempted to believe nice girls finish last let this book disabuse you of that myth If you have ever felt your anxiety social awkwardness or lack of body confidence has held you back Jo's story will motivate you to realise you are so much more than the labels people find for you

Finding My Feet - My Autobiography Jason Robinson, 2012-03-01 Jason Robinson began playing full time rugby at the age of 16 with Wigan Warriors the most successful club in Rugby League at the time He made the transition to Rugby Union with Sale Sharks in 2000 and was fast tracked to the England squad His speed unpredictability and charisma has ensured that he is now widely acknowledged as one of the most exciting players in the world His extraordinary turnaround from hard drinking deeply troubled teenager to born again Christian and dedicated family man makes his story all the more intriguing Fully updated with all the drama and excitement of the 2003 Rugby World Cup in which Jason was a crucial and inspiring team member this edition includes a player's account of England's triumphant victory in the final against Australia

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Thomas Hardy and His God Deborah Collins, 1990-06-18 Through a study of his verse and fiction the author attempts to present Hardy's seemingly conflicting views about the nature of God and His relationship with man. Also included is an assimilation of the philosophical influences on Hardy's writing including Schopenhauer and Comte. Seize the Day Tanni Grey-Thompson, 2001 Tanni Grey Thompson has performed at world class level for the past thirteen years in distances ranging from 100m to the marathon. Her 13 Paralympic medals, eight medal placings in the London Marathon and her comprehensive set of British and World Records make her achievements second to none in the disability sport arena. Here she talks candidly about her early life and ambitions before offering a colourful account of her success in the four Paralympic Games in which she has been involved. Tanni talks incisively about disability sporting issues and reveals how she set about becoming a world class athlete. Passages from My Autobiography Lady Morgan (Sydney), 1859 Passages from My Autobiography Sydney Morgan, 1859 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1964
