

The book cover features a detailed illustration. The top section shows a bright, sun-like celestial body with rays emanating from it, set against a dark, cloudy sky. Below this, the title is printed in a large, white, serif font. The bottom section of the cover depicts a large, green, dome-shaped structure, possibly a tomb or a celestial body, rising from a turbulent, swirling sea. A bright, circular light source is positioned directly above the dome, casting a beam of light down upon it. The overall color palette is dominated by dark greens, blues, and browns, with highlights of gold and white from the celestial bodies and the title text.

Sacrifice Imagined Douglas Hedley, 2011-09-08 Sacrifice Imagined is an original exploration of the idea of sacrifice by one of the world's preeminent philosophers of religion. Despisers of religion have poured scorn upon the idea of sacrifice as an index of the irrational and wicked in religious practice. Nor does its secularised form seem much more appealing. One need only think of the appalling cult of sacrifice in numerous totalitarian regimes of the twentieth century. Yet sacrifice remains a part of our cultural and intellectual imaginary. Hedley proposes good reasons to think that issues of global conflict and the ecological crisis highlight the continuing relevance of the topic of sacrifice for contemporary culture. The subject of sacrifice has been decisively influenced by two books: Girard's The Violence and the Sacred and Burkert's Homo Necans. Both of these are theories of sacrifice as violence. Hedley's book challenges both of these highly influential theories and presents a theory of sacrifice as renunciation of the will. His guiding influences in this are the much misunderstood Joseph de Maistre and the Cambridge Platonists.
