Select Critical Essays Thomas Babington Macaulay Baron Macaulay, 1923      Selected Critical Essays William Wordsworth, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1958      Selected Critical Writings David Herbert Lawrence, 1998 A critic must be able to feel the impact of a work of art in all its complexity and force To do so he must be a man of force and complexity himself A critic must be emotionally alive in every fibre intellectually capable and skilful in essential logic and then morally very honest These comments by D H Lawrence are as close a description as any of himself as a critic They come from his essay on fellow novelist John Galsworthy and there are many other pieces on novels and novelists in this selection But Lawrence's range of genres extends to poetry and plays and paintings and his critical writing encompasses an enormous variety of subjects from Aeschylus and the Apocalypse to symbolism and syphilis for his interests are philosophical psychological religious moral sociological historical and cultural as well as literary and artistic This selection is a treasure trove of thought adventures by one of literature's liveliest critical spirits      Selected Essays [from the Author's Three Series of "Biographical and Critical Essays"]. Writing to the Moment Tom Paulin, 1998      Criticism and Literary Theory 1890 to the Present Chris Baldick, 2014-06-11 Presents a coherent and accessible historical account of the major phases of British and American Twentieth century criticism from decadent aestheticism to feminist deconstructionist and post colonial theories Special attention is given to new perspectives on Shakespearean criticism theories of the novel and models of the literary canon The book will help to define and account for the major developments in literary criticism during this century exploring the full diversity of critical work from major critics such as T S Eliot and F R Leavis to minor but fascinating figures and critical schools Unlike most guides to modern literary theory its focus is firmly on developments within the English speaking world      The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry      A Partial Enlightenment Avram Alpert, 2021-04-06 In many ways Buddhism has become the global religion of the modern world For its contemporary followers the ideal of enlightenment promises inner peace and worldly harmony And whereas other philosophies feel abstract and disembodied Buddhism offers meditation as a means to realize this ideal If we could all be as enlightened as Buddhists some imagine we could live in a much better world For some time now however this beatific image of Buddhism has been under attack Scholars and practitioners have criticized it as a Western fantasy that has nothing to do with the actual experiences of Buddhists Avram Alpert combines personal experience and readings of modern novels to offer another way to understand modern Buddhism He argues that it represents a rich resource not for attaining perfection but rather for finding meaning and purpose in a chaotic world Finding unexpected affinities across world literature Rudyard Kipling in colonial India Yukio Mishima in postwar Japan Bessie Head escaping apartheid South Africa as well as in his own experiences living with Tibetan exiles Alpert shows how these stories illuminate a world in which suffering is inevitable and total enlightenment is impossible Yet they also give us access to partial enlightenments powerful insights that become available when we come to terms with imperfection and stop looking for wholeness A Partial Enlightenment reveals the moments of personal and social transformation that the inventions of modern Buddhism help make possible
